Writing curriculum Progression of Knowledge EYFS, KS1 and KS2

At Pakeman, we are a one and a half form entry school and therefore we have a Year A / Year B cycle of topics in nursery, KS1 and KS2 (this is not needed in 2-plus or reception). At Pakeman, writing is taught in specific meaningful and effective contexts. We use high quality texts where children have effective, daily English lessons and frequent opportunities to write across the curriculum. Speaking and listening skills support children in articulating their ideas. Children have opportunities to reflect on and improve writing through editing with continuous self, peer and teacher assessment providing clear next steps for learning. Children are taught to use a neat and consistent style of handwriting, and presentation. Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar is taught in accordance with the statutory requirements of the English National Curriculum

Our writing has been carefully mapped out across all year groups to ensure a range of genres and styles. The coverage of genres considers the main purpose to writing: to entertain, to inform and in KS2 to persuade. Coverage has been designed to ensure that children cover several different genres and gives them the opportunity to revisit those genres and build up their understanding of features. Children are taught genres of writing narratives, setting and character descriptions, diaries, letters, play scripts, dialogues, information and explanation reports, newspaper reports, and biographies.

For each writing unit of work, children should be taught the key knowledge, key skills and key vocabulary. Please ensure that this information is fully covered in the series of lessons that you plan. As children move through the school, they will build on prior knowledge, skills and vocabulary.

Alphabet List Poem	A list poem does exactly as described and collects content in a list form. List poems don't have any fixed rhyme or rhythmic pattern. List poems usually have a list in the middle, plus a few lines at the beginning and a few lines at the end. You can think of the beginning and end of a list poem like the top and bottom slices of bread in a sandwich.	Collect/explore new words beginning with each letter. Write an Alphabet list poem. Practise letter formation for letters of the alphabet (including capital letters)	A to Z by Michaela Morgan The You Can Be A B C – Roger Stevens A Monster Alphabet by Gervase Phinn An Alphabet of Horrible Habits by Colin West
Onomatopoeia and alliteration	Onomatopoeia, according to the Oxford Dictionary, is the 'formation of a word which describes its sound'. Examples of onomatopoeic words include sizzle, clap, moo, roar, etc. It is a common feature in many poems written with children in mind. The onomatopoeia can sometimes form a refrain, that repeats through the poem, providing structure.	Firework, bonfire night poetry The noises around a house / outside Poem about a science experiment A poem about the senses	Firework Poem by Jim Carter Look at the Train! by Kathy Henderson Rain-Dance by Hilda Offen Onomatopoeia by Eve Merriam
Simile Poem	Simile is common poetic device. The subject of the poem is described by comparing it to another object or subject, using 'as' or 'like'. For example, the subject may be 'creeping as quietly as a mouse' or be 'sly, like a fox.' Keep the structure simple, non-rhyming and explore similes first. It may take the form of a 'list poem'.	Animal simile poem Colour simile poem On the ground simile poem	Leap Like a Leopard by John Foster
List Poem	Free verse does not follow a set syllable pattern or rhyme scheme. It may be written on a range of themes. Refer to the KS2 key objectives and writing curriculum content for Year 4. Alliteration and similes (non clichéd) should be expected and encouraged as children have come across this in KS1. Narrative Poems	A narrative poem in literature is a poem which tells a story. It has a full storyline with all the elements of a traditional story. These elements include characters, plot, conflict and resolution,	Link to project or class text – could a story be changed into a narrative poem?	The Highwayman by Alfred Noyes Maggie and the Dinosaur by Dave Ward Me and my Brother by Michael Rosen setting and action. ... Narrative poems include old epics, lays and ballads.

Personification	In poetry, personification is used to allow non-human things to take on human traits and emotions. Poets can use personification to make inanimate objects, such as a mirror, express feelings and perform actions. In Year 6 children should have the opportunity to read a range of poems where personification is used and comment on why the author has chosen to do this. Shape Poem/ Concrete Poem	The poem usually describes an object. The poem is presented in the shape of the object which it is describing. The layout may either be with the words inside a shape or around the outline of the shape. Concrete poems should not be confused with calligrams (where individual words take on a shape that reveals their meaning).	Create a poem in the shape of a noun (linked to a project) using a template if needed (ideas on twinkl) e.g. weather, oceans, seaside, seasons, animals The poem can just be words or phrases to describe the noun, then written as the outline shape or within a template of the shape.	The Shape I'm In by James Carter Rhythm Machine by Trevor Harvey Undersea Tea by Tony Mitton + more in The Works (every kind of poem you will ever need for the literacy hour) by Paul Cookson
Diamantes	The poem is presented in the shape of a diamond: o Line 1: Beginning subject; o Line 2: Two adjectives about line 1; o Line 3: Three verbs or words ending '-ing' about line 1; o Line 4: A short phrase about line 1, a short phrase about line 7; o Line 5: Three verbs or words ending '-ing' about line 7; o Line 6: Two adjectives about line 7;	Ideas for teaching sequence at: https://www.poetry4kids.com/?s=how+to+write+a+diamanté+poem Online interactive programme with example poems and activity to make diamante poems: https://www.readwritethink.org/search?s=diamante+poems	Bike Shiny, quiet Peddalling, spinning, weaving Whizzing round corners, zooming along roads Racing, roaring, speeding Fast, loud Car

Calligram	Calligrams are words or sections of text that are designed to create a visual representation of the word itself. It connects text and image. The image is shown as a shape or a symbol which captures the main idea or theme of the poem.	Topic focused	Guillaume Apollinaire
Collage Poetry	The idea is to cut out words from these materials and then rearrange them to create a poem. This activity is also a brilliant way of learning about word classes, as you will be physically moving words to build phrases and sentences.	Using old books/magazines/newspaper, etc. https://www.tate.org.uk/kids/make/cut-paste/poetry-collage
Blackout Poetry	A blackout poem is when a poet takes a marker (usually black marker) to already established text--like in a newspaper--and starts redacting words until a poem is formed. The key thing with a blackout poem is that the text AND redacted text form a sort of visual poem.	Exploring with children how poetry can be used to project their 'voice' on issues important to them. Themes may include controversial issues such as climate change, racism, bullying, animal cruelty.

STRUCTURED:	Types of Poetry and Features	Writing Suggestions	Example Poems
Riddles	The poem describes a noun (usually an object), but does not name it, i.e. it may describe a tiger as striped and furry. The last line usually directly addresses the reader and uses a question, e.g. 'What is it?' or 'Can you guess what I could be?' The mood of the poem is light-hearted.	Write riddles and test them out on friends and family. Riddles about subjects they have experienced / matter to them / familiar objects e.g: animals, seasons, food, household objects	What Am I? by Jo Peters Animal Riddle by Pie Corbett Teaser by Tony Mitton Riddle by John Foster
Acrostic	An acrostic poem is a type of poetry where the first, last or other letters in a line spell out a particular word or phrase. The most common and simple form of an acrostic poem is where the first letters of each line spell out the word or phrase.	Link to overall topic, or topic in science, etc.	An Acrostic by Roger McGough Giant by Jack Ousbey My Glasses by John Hegley

Question and Answer Poetry	Whilst this is not a traditional poetic structure it is one which poets for children use, often for comic effect. The poem is structured as a dialogue between two people. This kind of poem is great for performance as there are clear roles and voices within it and the children can have fun adding character to the lines. A simple q and a structure would work well with lower KS2 children. Create ideas using a whole class plan and provide a template for LA children.	PUPPY IN THE HOUSE Who broke the window? It wasn't me.
